

AUSTRALIA IS CORRUPT:

On Sunday, the 1st of January, 1901, in Centennial Park, Sydney, Australia was Proclaimed a Commonwealth - but lies and corruption persist to this very day.

Now, there is a Federation Pavilion in that place to commemorate Australia's Independence and the question inscribed around its dome is "Mammon or Millennial Eden" taken from Bernard O'Dowd's poem, "Australia".

"Eden" meaning "paradise" - while "Mammon" means an "inordinate desire for wealth or possessions, personified as a devil or demonic agent". That question was answered on that day and remains unchanged and determinedly entrenched, since, as evidenced by events on that day, such as the concoction of "Australia's First Cabinet".

This photograph shows the members of Australia's first federal ministry waiting to be sworn in. Edmund Barton (1849–1920), who became Australia's first prime minister, and four of the colonial premiers – George Turner (1851–1916), Victoria; William Lyne (1844–1913), New South Wales; John Forrest (1847–1918), Western Australia; and Neil Lewis (1858–1935), Tasmania – joined the temporary first Cabinet, awaiting the first federal election on 20 March 1901. All still swearing allegiance to the Crown of the United Kingdom - even though, as of that date, the UK ceased to have jurisdiction and executive power over Australia.

WHERE IT ALL BEGAN:

It was on the 26th of January 1788, that a British Fleet landed at Farm Cove in Sydney Harbour and Capt. Arthur Phillip, R.N. took possession of this country in the name of the Crown of the United Kingdom and he, under Letters Patent, became the First Governor of the Colony. The vastly scattered Stone Age tribes inhabiting the continent were no obstacle to the occupation and establishment of that Penal Colony nor against the muskets of the Royal Marines.

Free Settlers started arriving in the years that followed and the 19th century in Australia was a tumultuous period highlighted by the Eureka Stockade Rebellion in 1854 against oppression and exploitation by the governing authorities. The men in the gold fields of Ballarat banded together and drew up their “Charter of Rights” but were attacked by the military forces of Queen Victoria under the command of Governor Charles Hotham. Many men died and 13 were taken prisoner to be tried for High Treason to be executed. However, 6 separate Juries pronounced them “Not Guilty”. Those trials are regarded as a “Landmark of Democracy”.

Australia was then comprised of 6 colonies (New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, South Australia, Western Australia and Tasmania) and the desire to confederate into one nation took hold with a series of Constitutional Conferences. After 3 referenda, “A Bill for an Act to Constitute the Commonwealth of Australia” achieved a majority of voters in a majority of states. A delegation took the proposed legislation to the U.K Parliament which passed it after certain alterations were made by the Secretary of the Parliament, Sir Joseph Chamberlain, that include the removal of the words, “This Act shall bind the Crown”, from its Preamble.

Queen Victoria signed that Act on the 9th of July 1900 and signed the “Proclamation of the Commonwealth of Australia” on the 17th of September 1900 to be read out and become effective on the 1st day of January 1901.

On the 28th of October 1900, the Privy Council (i.e.: the Queen-in-Council) issued Letters Patent with the Commission appointing Lord John Hopetoun to be Australia’s Governor-General. This was okay because Australia, at that time, had not yet become independent by the proclaiming of the Commonwealth. As to status of the 1900 UK Act to Constitute the Commonwealth of Australia, this has been summed up by a decision in the High Court of England and Wales, i.e.: Fitzgibbon v HM Attorney General [2005] EWHC 114 (Ch)(09 February 2005) when Justice Lightman said: “As soon as Australia became independent, the 1900 Act ceased to have any effect as an exercise of sovereign power of the United Kingdom, and whatever effect it then and thereafter had was as part of the law of the sovereign state of Australia, into the validity of which this court has no jurisdiction to inquire.”

Since 01/01/1901, there have been no Letters Patent issued by the Privy Council that effect Australia in any way as there is no jurisdiction to do so. The lies that have ensued since have been prolific - including so-called “Letters Patent” created by Bob Hawke in 1984; the creation of the title “Queen of Australia” in 1973; and the “enacting” of all legislation and the “appointments” of Judges and Magistrates throughout Australia. The entire bureaucracy is fraud. The United States of America won its bloody war of independence (1775 - 1783) created their own Constitution on the 17th of September 1788, ratified it on the 21st of June 1788 and it became effective on the 4th of March 1789. But Australia has never done this.

ENGLAND WAS ONCE A COMMONWEALTH:

England, itself, was once a Commonwealth for only 11 years after King Charles I was beheaded for “High Treason” and the formalities were 2 pieces of legislation, i.e.: “An Act to Abolish the Office of King” (March 17, 1649) and “An Act declaring England to be a Commonwealth” (May 19, 1649). When Oliver Cromwell died in 1658, his son could not prevent the aristocracy regaining power and Charles II was crowned in 1660.

In a Commonwealth, the People have Sovereignty, i.e.: “the ultimate authority to make and impose laws”, and govern themselves - while, in a Monarchy, the King or Queen has that power to govern the People who are “subjects”. In a Monarchy, the distribution of wealth is intentionally disproportionate in order to wield power. In a Monarchy, the land is owned by the Crown with “subjects” as tenants paying rent, rates and taxes.

The legal maxim is: “When someone owns land, they own everything above it to an indefinite height and everything below it to an indefinite depth” and the Right to Property is regarded as “the fruit and badge of liberty”.

This notion of “Crown Land” is still being forced on the People of Australia with draconian enforcement by Police and Sheriffs who arrest any property owner who tries to resist “public office holders” or corporations from entering their home and land. A slave has no Right to Property and so-called “legislation” saying “a land-holder” owns only the top 6 feet and whatever is above it or below that “6 feet” is owned by the Crown to issued “licences” for its taking, is a violation of the Common Law that was born from Magna Carta, the “Great Charter of Liberty 1215”, and remains the Rule of Law in Australia despite the lies of the Judiciary and other agents of the Bankers.

A Commonwealth is a Democracy for the same reason, i.e.: the “People Rule”.

However, Democracy has been denied to the People of Australia - even after Australia becoming a Commonwealth. And Sovereignty is what it’s all about. “Who’s the boss?” Who makes the law? Who dishes out the punishment when someone does something wrong - or even when someone doesn't accept being a slave? Oh yes, Australia is a country of slaves ruled by thieves and traitors because a slave has no right of consent, no right to property, and no right to trial by jury.

The Freedom, that is part-and-parcel of living in a Commonwealth, was never going to be allowed when Australia became independent of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. That would have meant that great financial loss and the thieves, thugs and plunderers would be brought to Justice by Common Law that is the Law of the people, by the People and for the People administered in Common Law Courts by Juries of ordinary free men and women.

On that first Sunday of 1901 there was an organised display of "regal pomp and ceremony" to reinforce a continuance of British Rule. Ian Henke wrote a book that he called "Australia: the Concealed Colony" which challenged and exposed the fraudulently maintained institutions of power that steal and destroy people and property, without conscience.

LIES MAINTAINED BY MORE LIES:

Concealing the truth has been a permanent strategy for the disenfranchisement, oppression and enslaving of the People of Australia. Lying and misinformation generated by the Law Schools has produced a legal profession conspiring with the thieves. The universities have become the training ground of traitors.

The Banks are, of course, the greatest thieves in history and the Judges are the greatest traitors. The Banks steal by fraudulent contracts aided by Judges who deny Trial by Jury which is the very height of High Treason because it is an act to overthrow the Sovereignty of the People. They control the media, the sheriffs and police. They control the media and bombard the People with lies and propaganda, 24 hours a day. Their stranglehold on People and Lands of Australia is as determined as any homicidal maniac. A recent newspaper report tells how the Police are now being armed with "new Colt M4 semi-automatic long-ranged rifles" and says, "The unit, which has 17 detectives, aims to target individuals planning lone-wolf style attacks and those who are unstable and seemingly obsessed with individuals or issues. Police say the individual fixations range from extreme religious ideology to perceived grievances with public office holders." (Daily Telegraph December 19, 2017).

In 1996, I filed an action against the St. George Bank (NSW Supreme Court Case No: 20680 of 1996) to sever the bad part from a loan contract to make it valid. The bad part was the variable interest rates which contravened the “8 essential elements for the creation of a contract” which are: (i) offer; (ii) acceptance; (iii) sufficient consideration; (iv) capacity to contract; (v) intention to enter legal relations; (vi) legality of purpose; (vii) genuine consent; and (viii) certainty of terms. In other words, “variable interest rates render a contract void for uncertainty”.

Until 1981, legislation such as the Moneylenders Act, made it clear that “the contract shall show the total amount of interest payable” - but then this was repealed and replaced by the Consumer Credit Act which stated that “the lender may vary the terms of the contract” and without the consent of the borrower. It was slipped through in the dead of night and, with similar stealth, put into practice with interest rates reaching 23% that crippled families and businesses. Recourse to the courts was futile because of the corrupt Judiciary which rubber-stamped Writs of Possession filed by the banks.

I encountered this Judicial Corruption when, on the 5th of September 1996, a so-called “Master” named Greenwood read out a pre-written “Judgment” saying that “the rate itself is indeed certain”. This lie was upheld by a second “Judge”, Hamilton, and then 2 “Judges”, Clarke and Abadee, in the Court of Appeal, Case No: 40593 of 1996, and a further 3 “Judges”, Dawson, Toohey and Kirby, in the High Court, Case No: S190 of 1996. I then filed an action against those 7 “Judges” for Concealing a Serious Offence and Perverting the Course of Justice.

In 2016, the Australian Broadcasting Corporation did a nationwide story on their 730 Report that I was a “Terrorist” - but Australian Judges will not allow me to take Defamation action against them and tell “The Truth. The whole Truth. And nothing but to Truth” to a fully-informed Jury.

Tyranny in Australia is subtle and insidious. It is wrapped in sunshine and “Throw another prawn on the barby” glossy showmanship. A friend said, years ago, that “Australia is a 5-star prison” and that “People aren’t hurting enough, yet”. But the destruction of the human spirit is happening all around as despair and depression manifest. Instead of courts being “places where justice is administered” and where “men’s rights are vindicated and just caused enforced”, the thieves have corrupt Judges strip their victims of their assets and arbitrarily imprison anyone who tries to resist. Suicides of non-custodial fathers from the “Family Court” occur at the rate of 5-7 per week. Suicides and homicides in cities and on farms have become a regular feature as men sheriffs unlawfully evict and militarised police intimidate and assault them with impunity.

The Magna Carta Monument in Canberra says that “Magna carta is now seen as a traditional mandate for trial by jury, justice for all, accountable government and no arbitrary imprisonment”. But is not true in Australia - where we are supposed to be “young and free”.

Talk about Magna Carta in an Australian court and, immediately, the so-called Judges and lawyers savagely turn upon you. And, if you should persist in demanding your inalienable right to trial by jury, then the sheriffs will descend upon you to either locked you in the cells or brutally remove your from the so-called court and into the street. And when you are gone, they will “proceed in your absence”. If you do not subserviently bow to these criminals and traitors, you will suffer the same fate.

This is TOTALITARIANISM. This is MAMMON. This is proof of the truth of Ecclesiastes 3:16 that says, “I also noticed that under the sun there is evil in the courtroom. Yes, even the courts of law are corrupt!”

“The price of liberty is eternal vigilance” and “The only way for evil to triumph is that good men do nothing” are very appropriate for us but, at this point in time, we are not listening.

Truth, Justice, Freedom and Democracy can only be regained by re-establishing the Rule of Law and that means ridding our courts of those “evil counsellors, judges and ministers who are subverting and extirpating the laws and liberties of the people” (from the Bill of Rights 1688).

Yours sincerely,

Dr. John Wilson, Sydney, Australia.
